Your Name Jane/John Doe  Student Number 099999999  Date 4/16/10

1. Ministry activity date 04/01/10

Description of ministry activity and its content: Briefly describe your ministry activity in the space provided and show how it relates to the course content. Identify related course content by chapter, lesson, or page number.

I preached to a group of faithful believers and warned them of the danger of inculturation focusing on the philosophy of individualism.

Objective covered in the sermon - 2.3.2

2. Results: What resulted from your own participation in this activity? Include descriptions of people’s reactions, decisions to accept Christ, confirmed miracles, Spirit and water baptisms, life changes, etc. Describe the individuals or group who benefited from or participated in your ministry activity. Use numbers to describe results when appropriate (approximate when unsure).

Most of the people agreed that we need to hold on to the biblical standards and be more community oriented in caring for each other, but some people did not take the message seriously.

Two people responded to the alter call and re-dedicated their lives.

3. Reflection: Answer the following questions based on your experience in completing this assignment:

Did this activity satisfy an evident need in others? How so?

Yes, a couple's desperate financial need was met by another couple who were directed by the Holy Spirit to help them after hearing the message.

Were you adequately prepared to engage in this activity? Why or why not? Yes, because I was totally convinced from my studies based on Colossians 2:8 that we are not to depend on humanistic philosophies.

What positive or negative feelings were you aware of while you were completing this activity?

I knew that the content of my sermon was going to cause some retrospection because it was opposed to the cultural norm.

In what ways were you aware of the Holy Spirit’s help during your ministry activity?

I was completely dependent on the Holy Spirit to help me through the message because I am not the best communicator.

What would you change if you did this ministry activity again?

I would include some illustrations from real life to related to people better.

What strengths or weaknesses within yourself did this assignment reveal to you?

When I speak on God's behalf He has got my back.

Did you receive feedback about this activity? If so, describe:

Yes, I continue to receive emails and phone calls about how the church has incorporated the message and are now proactively reaching out to each other in times of need.
