I shared what I learned from Chapter 2 about Jesus as the Supreme Creator, Sustainer, and Reconciler with a hindu colleague at my workplace.

Use numbers to describe results when appropriate (approximate when unsure).

My friend readily accepted the message when I asked him what he thought about it. Later I understood that he was equating Jesus Christ with the hindu creator God - Brahma.

3. Reflection: Answer the following questions based on your experience in completing this assignment:

Did this activity satisfy an evident need in others? How so?

Initially, it didn't seem like I conveyed the message of the uniqueness of Christ to him but it was a good point of contact.

Were you adequately prepared to engage in this activity? Why or why not? No, because I was ignorant about his beliefs and practices. I did not know he had a preconceived understanding of the concept of a creator god.

What positive or negative feelings were you aware of while you were completing this activity?

I was very excited at the opportunity to present the gospel to a person from another religion. It took a lot of courage to initiate the conversation but I am glad I was able to talk to him about Christ.

In what ways were you aware of the Holy Spirit’s help during your ministry activity?

I prayed quite a bit before talking to my colleague about Christ because I had never shared the gospel with anyone before, so I was completely dependent on the Holy Spirit.

What would you change if you did this ministry activity again?

I would do some research on how to present the gospel to a person from another religion or culture.

What strengths or weaknesses within yourself did this assignment reveal to you?

I realized that I can boldly share gospel with confidence but I lack in my knowledge of other religions and cultures.

Did you receive feedback about this activity? If so, describe:

Yes, my friend is very open with me about his beliefs and we have a fruitful dialogue going on. I am hoping and believing that he will accept the Lord as his personal savior soon.
