THE142 Assemblies of God History, Missions, and Governance

Your Name Jane/John Doe  Student Number 099999999  Date 3/5/10

1. Ministry activity date 1/6/10 - 2/28/10  Description of ministry activity and its content: Briefly describe your ministry activity in the space provided and show how it relates to the course content. Identify related course content by chapter, lesson, or page number.

I met with a coworker at his home for several weeks to disciple them. He and his wife recently made decisions to accept Jesus and are new to Christian faith and doctrine. I used the course materials mostly to help them understand basic Bible doctrines by looking at the sixteen fundamental truths. These are discussed under lesson 13.2. and in the Constitution. I also showed them some of the basic history of the Assemblies of God discussed throughout the course.

2. Results: What resulted from your own participation in this activity? Include descriptions of people’s reactions, decisions to accept Christ, confirmed miracles, Spirit and water baptisms, life changes, etc. Describe the individuals or group who benefited from or participated in your ministry activity. Use numbers to describe results when appropriate (approximate when unsure).

This couple seemed to grasp these basic doctrines very well and also seemed to experience genuine joy to grow in understanding. They were both recently baptized in water after we discussed the two ordinances taught by Jesus.

3. Reflection: Answer the following questions based on your experience in completing this assignment:

Did this activity satisfy an evident need in others? How so?

Yes, definitely! These new believers didn't know where to begin learning about their new faith or the Bible. They were very eager but needed someone to carefully and personally walk with them in the learning experience.

Were you adequately prepared to engage in this activity? Why or why not? Yes - the course's review of the sixteen fundamental truths was enough to lay a foundation for them. They had questions that were not answered by the course, but if I could not answer them, we called the pastor or did a bible study with other resources I have.

What positive or negative feelings were you aware of while you were completing this activity?

It felt so good to watch understanding come into these people and to sense the joy and excitement they were feeling about discovering new truth. This experience made me want to do this again soon.

In what ways were you aware of the Holy Spirit’s help during your ministry activity?

There were some questions these two people asked me that I didn't have a good answer for. But when I began to study the Bible with them, the lights came on. I sensed the Holy Spirit confirming the answers we found in the Bible. I also had a strong sense that what we were doing was right and pleased God.

What would you change if you did this ministry activity again?

I would have a better expectation of some of the questions that could be asked by new believers.

What strengths or weaknesses within yourself did this assignment reveal to you?

I was reminded of how much love I can have for people and how fulfilling it is to give myself to others. I also discovered that I can handle very difficult questions about the Bible and faith and not be intimidated.
Did you receive feedback about this activity? If so, describe:

The couple I met with still express appreciation to me and we have become very good friends.
