THE142 Assemblies of God History, Missions, and Governance

Your Name John / Jane Doe  Student Number 099999999  Date xx/xx/xx

1. Ministry activity date xx/xx/xx  Description of ministry activity and its content: Briefly describe your ministry activity in the space provided and show how it relates to the course content. Identify related course content by chapter, lesson, or page number.

Organize and/or administer a church program: I and a co-leader helped organize a short term missions trip for our church. Lesson 10.2 and 10.3 gave me some helpful background on short-term and long-term missionary work in the Assemblies of God. We went to Honduras for a week and helped on a construction project, and evangelism outreach.

2. Results: What resulted from your own participation in this activity? Include descriptions of people’s reactions, decisions to accept Christ, confirmed miracles, Spirit and water baptisms, life changes, etc. Describe the individuals or group who benefited from or participated in your ministry activity. Use numbers to describe results when appropriate (approximate when unsure).

In door to door visiting, a translator and I were able to lead a young man to Christ. We were then able to connect him with some people from the local church we were serving. It was an awesome experience! Another result of the trip was that the contruction project was a big boost to the local church.

3. Reflection: Answer the following questions based on your experience in completing this assignment:

Did this activity satisfy an evident need in others? How so?
People were quite receptive to the gospel, in the area we were ministering. There were several people who were led to Christ, on this missions trip. The need for Christ was clear - and there were not a lot of material things in that culture, for people to become preoccupied with.

Were you adequately prepared to engage in this activity? Why or why not? This was my first short term missions trip. I was stretched in a lot of ways. I think I could have been better prepared, on how to plan for the trip and cover the practical details.

What positive or negative feelings were you aware of while you were completing this activity?
We had some stresses on our missions team, as we were stretched in two directions - construction work and evangelism outreach. There was also a great joy in our hearts as we saw people respond to Christ.

In what ways were you aware of the Holy Spirit’s help during your ministry activity?
I definitely sensed the help of the Holy Spirit, in guiding us to the young man we shared the gospel with. The conversation unfolded in a good way, and he seemed genuinely receptive to the message of Jesus.

What would you change if you did this ministry activity again?
There are some areas of preparation I would address with our team (working with the team co-leader) - some things that we neglected to cover in our preparations.

What strengths or weaknesses within yourself did this assignment reveal to you?
I get stressed out when someone on the team starts grumbling and complaining. I need to find better ways to deal with that.

Did you receive feedback about this activity? If so, describe:
Our host missionaries and the national host pastor gave us some helpful feedback and guidance. We learned some important things about being sensitive to the host culture.
