1. Ministry activity date Description of ministry activity and its content: Briefly describe your ministry activity in the space provided and show how it relates to the course content. Identify related course content by chapter, lesson, or page number.

While reading about the dedication of early missionaries such as Lillian Trasher in Egypt, Dorothy Radley in Nicaragua, and Paul Kitch in Africa (Chapter 3), I was personally challenged to share my faith unashamedly with my friends who I knew were going to die in their sins if someone did not tell them about Jesus.

2. Results: What resulted from your own participation in this activity? Include descriptions of people’s reactions, decisions to accept Christ, confirmed miracles, Spirit and water baptisms, life changes, etc. Describe the individuals or group who benefited from or participated in your ministry activity. Use numbers to describe results when appropriate (approximate when unsure).

At first my friends were taken back by the sudden change in my attitude towards them but I continued to passionately reach out to them in love. After about one month, one of my close friends opened up to me and decided to accept Jesus in his life. It was the best day of my life!

3. Reflection: Answer the following questions based on your experience in completing this assignment:

Did this activity satisfy an evident need in others? How so?

Yes, it satisfied the eternal need of salvation in my friend's life. Also, I had the opportunity to witness him getting rid of his bad habits over time.

Were you adequately prepared to engage in this activity? Why or why not? No, I was not sure how my friends were going to react to my new found enthusiasm. Not all of them took it well but I will continue to reach out to them.

What positive or negative feelings were you aware of while you were completing this activity?

I was painfully made aware of the rejection from my friends who saw me as a freak but I was able to overcome the rejection because of the assurance that I was fulfilling God's purpose.

In what ways were you aware of the Holy Spirit’s help during your ministry activity?

I am a very reserved person by nature so it is difficult for me to speak out my convictions with others but when I started sharing about Christ to my friends I got a new boldness from the Holy Spirit.

What would you change if you did this ministry activity again?

While not compromising on my passion I will try to express my enthusiasm to share the gospel in a more subtle way that would not repel others away from me.

What strengths or weaknesses within yourself did this assignment reveal to you?

I am weak and timid but the Holy Spirit renewed my zeal to reach the unsaved and gave me the boldness to share the gospel.

Did you receive feedback about this activity? If so, describe:

Yes, my friend who accepted the Lord is very grateful that I shared the gospel with him. His faith is getting stronger everyday and he is now sharing his new found faith with others.
